

DISCLAIMER

For Course and Workshops

You have been asked to read and acknowledge this disclaimer before submitting any deposit or payment for any of the advertised courses or workshops.

During any subsequent Payment Process you will again be asked to confirm your acknowledgement and acceptance to these terms.

You seek to take part in a course/workshop being founded upon beliefs and practices of a Spiritual Nature which include seeking to understand and communicate with disincarnate Spirits in the 'Afterlife'.

No claims of any kind are made and results cannot be guaranteed.

You may, during the term of the course/workshop or thereafter, experience things which you may not have been witness to or felt before.

Although you will not be asked to participate in anything you do not wish to, if you consider yourself to be vulnerable or easily influenced you should consider very carefully whether the subject matter of the course/workshop is for you.

The participant certifies that he/she is not aware of any medical, psychiatric or emotional condition which might affect his/her fulfilment of the course/workshop and that he/she is voluntarily seeking these services for himself/herself and assumes full responsibility for their actions.
